

Capt. Blair (Dental Surgeon) "Doing His 'Bit' " [cartoon drawing]

<https://mhc.andornot.com/en/permalink/artifact11794>

Accession Number: 002050181

Author: F. G. Green

Collection: University Health Network - Academy of Medicine Collection

Category: Archival Items
Dental
Military Medicine

Classification: Archival, Images
Dental
Military Medicine, Dental

MeSH Heading: Physicians -- portraits
Dental Offices
Military Medicine -- ephemera

Description: Hand drawn cartoon style pen and ink print drawing depicting a WWI war zone dental office with everyone in military uniform; dentist is extracting tooth from patient in chair while four other men are waiting their turn and a sargent is admonishing them to wait; signage on the walls; previously folded into thirds.

Number Of Parts: 1

Provenance: Acquired from the Academy of Medicine.

Maker: F. G. Green

Dates: 1915

Date Remarks: Date on item

Material: paper: cream ink: black

Inscriptions: Printed on the front: "CAPT. BLAIR (DENTAL SURGEON) // DOING HIS BIT // Somewhere-in -Belgium // - by a victim from the Royal CANADIAN DRAGOONS. F. G. GREEN // Belgium // 1915"; handwritten on the front: "This one of my Dental // Officers, with [illeg.] from Winnipeg - This room is just up the // village shut from here - // Don't lose this please - / /J. T. F."; sign on walls: "KEEP // QUIET! // THIS MEANS // YOU; DON'T // SLAM // THE DOOR; NO TALKING // NO WHISTLING // NO NOTHING; OUTSIDE!"

Permanent Location: Storage Room 2005
2005-5-7 Binder A, p. 1 a

Length: 20.6 cm

Width: 26.3 cm

Unit Of Measure: centimeters

Condition Remarks: #1: Stable: Paper is very soiled around the edges and creased; on the back there are vertical creases indicating that it was folded in three, the edges are very darkened.

Copy Type: Original

Reference Types: Other

Reference Comments: Prev. # AMP1306

Images

---

