

Sterile Tray Index for Hospitals [sterilized instrument tray guide]

<https://mhc.andornot.com/en/permalink/artifact14063>

Accession Number: 000018023

Author: Wilmot Castle Company

Collection: Brockville Psychiatric Hospital Collection

Category: Nursing
Surgery, Instrumentation

Classification: Surgery, instrumentation
Treatment, General
Nursing

MeSH Heading: Sterilization methods
Sterilization -- instrumentation
Nursing Care -- instrumentation

Description: Large pale green card stock covered booklet with lists of instruments required for various treatments with accompanying photos of the proper layout; includes photographs of nurses loading wall mounted sterilizers; attached at the back is a four sided orange sheet showing photos and information about various sterilizer products from the manufacture Castle; 36 pages.

Number Of Parts: 1

Provenance: Originally owned by the Brockville Psychiatric Hospital.

Maker: Wilmot Castle Company

Site Made (City): Rochester

Site Made (State): New York

Site Made (Country): U.S.A.

Dates: 1957
circa 1957

Date Remarks: Publication date 1957

Material: paper: cream, green
ink: black, orange

Inscriptions: Printed on cover: "$1.00 per Copy // Revised Edition // STERILE TRAY // INDEX // for HOSPITALS // Published as a Hospital Service // by the // WILMOT CASTLE COMPANY // ROCHESTER, N.Y. // Property of // B. M. Kirker"; on inside cover: "Compiled by: Florence Donohue, R.N. // Central Supply Supervisor // Kitchener-Waterloo Hospital // Copyright 1957 by the Wilmot Castle Co."; on next page: "KITCHENER-WATERLOO HOSPITAL CSR // The "Sterile Tray Index for Hospitals" was born in this // modern Canadian Hospital Central Supply Department. // All tray sets, as outlined in the book, are processed in the // three large rectangular sterilizers shown. // To facilitate the huge work load and provide the simpli- // plest, safest control, the sterilizers are fitted with // automatic controls which are operately remotely from the // Supervisor's Office"

Permanent Location: Storage Room 2005
2005-5-6 Binder B pg 10 a

Length: 27.9 cm

Width: 21.5 cm

Depth: 0.03 cm

Unit Of Measure: centimeters

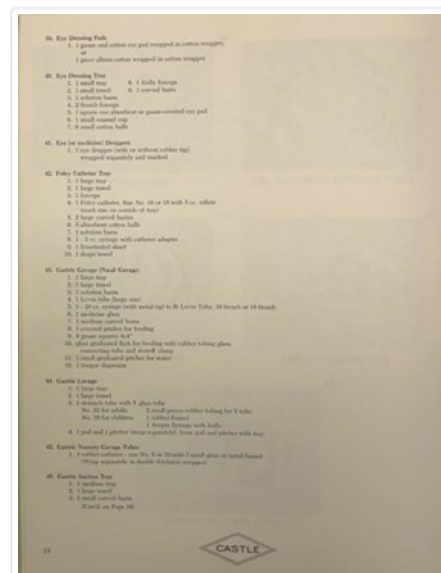

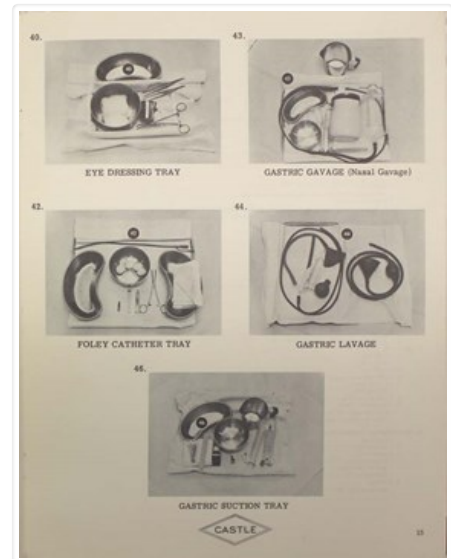

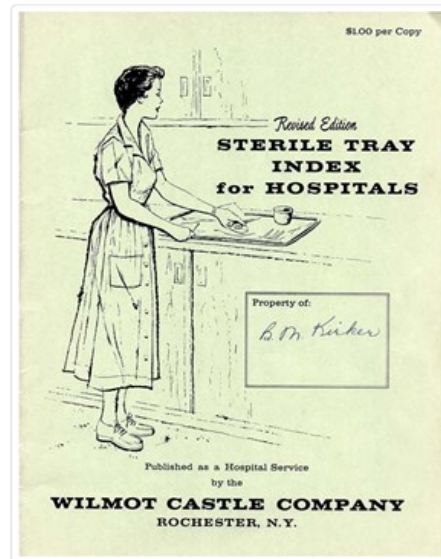

Dimension Notes: Length 27.9 cm X Width 21.5 cm X Depth 0.03 cm

Condition Remarks: like new inside; cover slightly faded especially around edges

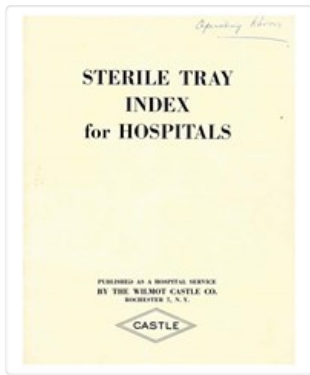

Copy Type: original

Reference Types: Website
 Reference Comments: "Medical Tour Info" Brockville Psychiatric Hospital website
 Research Facts: Formally known as the Eastern Hospital for the Insane; the Brockville Psychiatric Hospital opened in 1894; in 1903 the School of Nursing opened with one student who was given a two year course in nursing the mentally ill, this was one of Ontario's first nursing programs to specialize in psychiatric care; early in the 20th Century, the population expanded to 800 patients with as many as 100 patients at work on the grounds daily, the facility had a bakery, farm, garden, and a variety of shops including a butcher, tailor and carpenter (non of which are operational today); systems of treatment used throughout the years consisted of hydrotherapy, electro - convulsive therapy and vocational therapy; in 2000 the hospital was officially transferred from the Ontario Ministry of Health and Long-Term Care to the Royal Ottawa Health Care Group.

Images

Sterile Tray Index for Hospitals [sterilized instrument tray guide]

<https://mhc.andornot.com/en/permalink/artifact15036>

Accession Number: 000018024
Author: Wilmot Castle Company
Collection: Brockville Psychiatric Hospital Collection
Category: Nursing
Surgery, Instrumentation
Classification: Surgery, instrumentation
Treatment, General
Nursing
MeSH Heading: Sterilization methods
Sterilization -- instrumentation
Nursing Care -- instrumentation
Description: Large pale yellow card stock covered booklet with lists of instruments required for various treatments with accompanying photos of the proper layout; includes photographs of nurses loading wall mounted sterilizers; attached at the back is a four sided orange sheet showing photos and information about various sterilizer products from the manufacture Castle; 36 pages.
Number Of Parts: 1
Provenance: Originally owned by the Brockville Psychiatric Hospital.
Maker: Wilmot Castle Company
Site Made (City): Rochester
Site Made (State): New York
Site Made (Country): U.S.A.
Dates: 1953
circa 1953
Date Remarks: Publication date
Material: paper: cream, green
ink: black, orange
Inscriptions: Printed on cover: "STERILE TRAY // INDEX // for HOSPITALS // Published as a Hospital Service // by the // WILMOT CASTLE COMPANY // ROCHESTER, N.Y."; handwritten in top right corner of cover: "Operating Room"; on inside cover: "CONSULT // OUR // PLANNING // DEPARTMENT // WILMOT CASTLE COMPANY"; on next page: "STERILE TRAY // INDEX // for HOSPITALS // COMPLIED BY: FLORENCE DONAHUE, R.N. // EDITED BY: EVELYN ROBERTS, R.N."
Permanent Location: Storage Room 2005
2005-5-6 Binder B pg 11 a
Length: 27.9 cm
Width: 21.5 cm
Depth: 0.03 cm
Unit Of Measure: centimeters
Dimension Notes: Length 27.9 cm X Width 21.5 cm X Depth 0.03 cm
Condition Remarks: like new inside; cover slightly faded especially around edges
Copy Type: original
Reference Types: Website
Reference Comments: "Medical Tour Info" Brockville Psychiatric Hospital website
Research Facts: Formally known as the Eastern Hospital for the Insane; the Brockville Psychiatric Hospital opened in 1894; in 1903 the School of Nursing opened with one student who was given a two year course in nursing the mentally ill, this was one of Ontario's first nursing programs to specialize in psychiatric care; early in the 20th Century, the population expanded to 800 patients with as many as 100 patients at work on the grounds daily, the facility had a bakery, farm, garden, and a variety of shops including a butcher, tailor and carpenter (non of which are operational today); systems of treatment used throughout the years consisted of hydrotherapy, electro - convulsive therapy and vocational therapy; in 2000 the hospital was officially transferred from the Ontario Ministry of Health and Long-Term Care to the Royal Ottawa Health Care Group.

